Amanda Thompson (Clinician for Trail, Western, and Showmanship)

Amanda Thompson started showing in 4-H many years ago, then went on to show some quarter horse and breed shows before joining the OSU Western Equestrian Team where she was quite successful. Upon graduating from Ohio State, she continued to show some but felt moved to become a judge and has loved it. She became a horse judge in 2009 and quickly moved up to the experienced and PAS list. She has judged a number of 4-H and open shows every year since and is a current member of the State Horse Judges Committee for Ohio. She loves 4-H and helping kids and has coached her county horse team since 2011. They have seen great success in Horse Bowl, Hippology, Judging, and Groom & Clean. Aside from judging, she has four incredible kids, teaches riding lessons, and teaches high school science. She enjoys teaching others and is happy that she can judge and help others improve.

Amy Hoelscher (Clinician for Dressage and English)

Amy Hoelscher is passionate about helping horse and handler develop and maintain a strong, trusting relationship. She grew up actively involved in 4H and FFA programs, where her interest of judging began. Amy worked for a Quarter Horse breeder in high school and in 2010, she received her degree as a Registered Veterinary Technician, from Columbus State. She was a 4-H adviser for 6 years, helping children learn about riding and showing, and in 2016, Amy earned her judges card for the Ohio 4-H Horse Show Judges program. When not judging, Amy owns and operates Take the Lead Horsemanship which is a training and lesson barn in Hilliard. She believes you can never stop learning, and you can always improve your skills as a horseman or horsewoman.
