BACKGROUND

Participating in meetings utilizing Robert's Rules of Order is something that many people will have to do throughout their lives. Members of 4-H clubs have the opportunity of mastering the skill of managing meetings utilizing parliamentary procedure very early in life. It's a skill that can prove to be very helpful as they enter the world as an adult exercising their civic duty.

Utilizing parliamentary procedure in 4-H club meetings can:

- ✿ Keep meetings orderly
- ✿ Assist in keeping on task to get business done efficiently
- ✿ Help members work as a team and reach an agreement
- ✿ Facilitate the democratic process

Understanding the different terms that are associated with parliamentary procedure can help members understand what is happening during meetings.

WHAT TO DO

Pass out the Parli-pro Bingo Cards along with 20-25 card markers to each club member. Explain that definitions of the different parliamentary procedure terms will be randomly called out. If the participant has the term that matches the definition called, they cover that term with a marker. Encourage members to share what matching term they think goes with the definition.

Continue calling definitions until someone gets an entire row, column, or diagonal bingo. They must yell out, "I'm a Parli-pro!" when they get bingo. Hand out prizes to winners. Cards can be cleared, and new game can start over as many times as the group would like to play.
