

CENTRAL OHIO HOPS WORKSHOP

Come learn from a hops specialist, brewmaster and hops grower

Come and join us to learn how hops are grown and marketed in a discussion led by Brad Bergefurd, OSU Extension Horticulture Specialist at the North High Brewing Company. During this workshop there will be a tour of the North High Brewing Company by their very own brewmaster, Jason Mckibben. Then there is the opportunity to travel to Grandpops Hops Farm at 24820 Claibourne Rd Marysville, Ohio for a tour and talk with owner, Mike Ford.
